

Adam Prager is a Director in Prager's Strategic and Financial Advisory practices. Mr. Prager has over 20 years of experience in financial services, working with for-profit and not-for-profit institutions with equity and debt capital raising, strategic partnerships and mergers and acquisitions. Mr. Prager has been with the firm for over 10 years.

Prior to working at the firm, Mr. Prager led a consulting business, advising higher education institutions and for-profit companies with strategy, valuation and investor sourcing. Previously, Mr. Prager worked at Warner Bros. Entertainment in the Corporate Business Development &

Strategy Group, supporting the business units by assessing strategy followed by market execution including corporate acquisitions and venture-type investments. Mr. Prager began his career at Bear Stearns, working with financial institutions on equity and debt capital raising.

Mr. Prager has worked closely with The Western Association of Schools & Colleges, Senior College and University Commission ("WASC"), helping to define, develop, and analyze a framework to assess for-profit institutions, which remains a key tool in the accreditation evaluation process. Additionally, Mr. Prager has served on three WASC reaffirmation teams.

Mr. Prager received his undergraduate degree in economics from Claremont McKenna College and an MBA from UCLA Anderson School of Management. Mr. Prager is a FINRA Registered Securities Representative and Registered Municipal Advisor.